Official statements to this effect were made today from both the State Department and the Embassy. The United States has an understanding with several of the powers that the government will not interfere or take part in economic disputes of their citizens in foreign countries, until the matter has been decided by the local courts, when the government affected can make a plea for its citizens if it sees fit. Consequently, while the Hawaiian situation is being closely watched here, the state department will not take the matter up and the Japanese embassy will make no representations to the department until after the Hawaiian courts have reached a decision. Ambassador Takahira is to arrive in Washington tomorrow.

LIVELY WHILE IT LASTED

Forces Supporting Prices Win Control and Then Quit.

PROFESSIONAL ELEMENT BEARISH

Departure of Influential People in Financial District Taken as Explanation of Diminishing Activity on Exchange—Another Copper Reduction.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, June 18.—The contest between opposing forces in the stock market today was quite lively while it lasted, but was over in the course of the first hour of trading. The forces supporting prices against further fall established control in that time, but having done so seemed disposed to discontinue operations.

The prevailing sentiment amongst the professional element was bearish, based on the unsatisfactory action of the market when it rallied yesterday. Successive departure from the financial district of persons of influence in that world are taken as part explanation of the diminished activity of the market. It is surmised that some of the heavy selling this week has been in preparation of such departures by closing up of outstanding speculative accounts in stocks. News bearing on values was not important.

Another reduction in the London price of copper and the reported renewal of the war on import freight rates among the trunk lines were unfavorable incidents of the day.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value, $3,201,000. U. S. bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today, 623,200 shares, including: Sugar, 2,300; Tobacco, 200; A. C. L. 400; Central Leather, 34,200; C. & O. 1,500; L. & N., 200; Reading, 66,300; Sloss Sheffield, 900; Southern Pacific, 36,300; Southern Railway, 5,100; pfd, 500; Tennessee Copper, 100; Union Pacific, 40,000; U. ### MARRIED AT LAST.

George Gallagher and Miss Humphries Wed at Wilmington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18.—After a second secret trip to Wilmington, Del., where they went for the purpose of getting married, Miss Imogene Humphries, of 1509 R. street, Northwest, and George D. Gallagher, a draftsman in the Washington navy yard and a student at George Washington University, succeeded Wednesday evening in having the ceremony performed. They returned to Washington yesterday morning, when an announcement of the marriage was made.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John J. Dougherty, assistant priest of St. Peter's Cathedral, Wilmington, at 9 o'clock Wednesday night. The couple did their utmost to keep the wedding a secret. Inquiries were made at the rectory a few minutes after the ceremony had been performed regarding the runaway Washington couple without success.

Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher made their first trip to Wilmington last week to be married, but as Mr. Gallagher belongs to a Washington parish, the priest would not perform the ceremony unless a permit from the parish of the bridegroom was presented. They returned to Washington and the permit was procured.

Miss Humphries, who is twenty-three years old, is of a well-known Virginia family. The greater part of her life has been passed in Pittsburgh, in which city her father was engaged in the newspaper business for several years. She came to Washington with her family three years ago, and is one of the most popular young women of her set.
